Our new volunteer, Mr. Patrick, has been helping in the Infant Center on Monday and Wednesday mornings. He is a Sophomore at Pacific Union College. His major is social work and he hopes to focus on pediatric social work to support young people through life and their mental health. He values family and understands the importance of the early years of an individual's life. His desire is to not only teach while on campus yet to ensure that every child knows that they are loved and supported while in his care. We are grateful that he has chosen to spend his time with the LSLC school family.

Sunflower Classroom: This month is coming to an end and the children have been involved in a variety of learning experiences focusing on academics and social skills. This week we read Joseph and the coat, we talked about giving and forgiveness.

This week's focus in the Sunbeams Infant Toddler class was hands and touch. We read Hand Hand Fingers Thumb and 10 Little Fingers & 10 Little Toes. Projects were a Handprint Fall Tree, and stamping the letter H.
